

Leadership Brunswick County

Welcome to Leadership Brunswick County. We are pleased that you have made this commitment to expand your knowledge and leadership role in Brunswick County and look forward to your participation. We encourage you to use every opportunity over the next nine months to fully explore the information presented and broaden your understanding and appreciation of our community and its needs. Our discussion leaders and participants are encouraged to speak openly from personal experience and knowledge of social, political, economic, cultural and educational systems working within the county. By a free exchange of information, ideas and experience, you will help to create dialogue and common ground for our existing and emerging leaders to work together to meet the present and future needs of our community.
